
The Middle Length Lamrim

༄༅། །ལམ་རིམ་འབྲིང་། ། བྱང་སེམས་སྦྱང་བའི་རིམ་པ།

Commentary by the Venerable Geshe Doga

Translated by Sandup Tsering

5 November 2024

[NOTE: Tonight, Geshe Doga led prayers in lieu of teaching]

We'll begin with the usual prayers, and then we will do Medicine Buddha prayers and the prayer to Maitreya Buddha.

The Concise Essence Sutra Ritual of Bhagavan Medicine Buddha called The Wish-Fulfilling Jewel

[Students recited this in its entirety]

See

<https://fpmt.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/11/reader/medbudsutraa4rdr.pdf>

Now turn to the Prayer to Lord Maitreya on page 49 of the TI prayer book.

(Students recite prayer)

We will now do one mala of the OM MANI PADME HUM mantra.

(Pause as students complete mantras quietly)

Can someone bring the tea please? It's a Melbourne Cup Day holiday for Melbourne, right? So we are part of Melbourne today!

*Transcript prepared by Gaye Lewis
Edit 1 by Mary-Lou Considine
Edited Version*